We are in need of adult caregivers to provide child care in the church nursery during our 10 am worship service along with our teen volunteers. If you are interested please let Wendy Doherty know. Thank you

There will be a meeting for all Shipwrecked VBS volunteers on Tuesday, July 17th at 6:30 pm. The meeting will take approximately 1 hour and ice cream will be served! If you are volunteering and are unable to attend, please let Wendy Doherty know either through the office or by email at wendy@staug.org Thank you volunteers, you make VBS possible!

Summer Funday School We only require coverage for one more Sunday of Summer Funday School, on August 19th. If you are able to lead the lesson that morning, please let Wendy Doherty know.

Appeal for donations for the last two Syrian refugee families we are sponsoring The last two families of Syrian refugees are now in the system. One of the families are expected to arrive in Lethbridge before the end of August. START is issuing an urgent appeal for donations (monetary and in kind) to support the projected arrivals. Cheques can be made out to St. Augustine's Church with an indication that the money is for our Syrian Refugee families. The Church will issue tax receipts. Contact Brian Black (brian.black@uleth.ca, for information.

For Sale by closed bid, Samick Baby Grand Piano details may be found on posters available on the bulletin table in the narthex. If you are interested please pick one up.

Could all Church Group Leaders and Church Committee Chairpersons please confirm their Group/Committee's regular meeting days and times, (start and Finish time please) for 2018/19 with David Hignell as soon as possible. Please remember that no bookings are automatically carried over from one year to the next. e-mail David at <hignell@uleth.ca>, or, leave a note in his mailbox in the Narthex. If you lead a group and wish to recruit new members or advertise your groups meeting time, please email the church office (office@staug.org) a notice for the bulletin in the upcoming weeks.

St. Augustine's now owns the properties (duplex and vacant lot) south of the church property on 11th Street. After receiving approval from parishioners at the special meeting held on June 3rd, the additional conditions of the purchase contract were satisfied and we took possession on June 29th. A huge thank you to all who were involved in this highly successful transaction. We are planning a work bee to trim hedges and clean up garbage on the new property.

Volunteers needed! Date will be July 28 beginning at 10am. Sign up with Barbara Edgecombe Green in the narthex if you are able to come.
